

SEPT 28/2006

Dear Justin

You and I have not had a chance to meet, yet but we will soon. I was two years old when my dad last hugged me. He's never seen me play hockey, swim or ski.

We haven't seen each other in 11 years. A LOT of days I thought I would never see my dad, ever.

There is a real chance that my dad will be home for Christmas. Getting my dad back to Canada is ONLY because of your dad.

Your dad is a brave man, a hero to lots of people, especially me. Everybody said it was impossible for my dad to come home. But your dad said "NO WAY" and then went out and did what nobody else could do. I hope you grow up to be like your dad. I will remember all my life how your dad helped my dad, when everyone else gave up.

NEVER GIVE UP!

Your dad is the coolest person in the world.

NICK Kapowstin

6